

A Week in Review

As followers of Christ we seek to know and emulate Him.

Group Opener

What would you consider to be your greatest “win” up to this point in your life?

Study Questions

Read Philippians 3:12-21.

What would you say is the ultimate goal of mankind?

What does Paul say he is “striving for” or “pressing on to” in verse twelve?

What goals are you currently pursuing? How do your current goals compare to life’s ultimate goal?

What does Paul mean by verse thirteen?

How has your past accomplishments &/or failures hindered your pursuit of God’s will for you?

What do you do to stay focused on the primary goal for which you were created?

Paul invites his readers to follow his example (v. 17). How comfortable would you be inviting others to follow your example?

In addition to following the example of Christ, who else is providing you a Christlike example to follow?

What is the gospel? In what ways does your life reflect an accurate understanding of the gospel? In what ways is your life not representing an accurate understanding of the gospel?

Paul says, “our citizenship is in heaven” (v. 20). What does he mean and how would others know you believe this to be true?

Where are you at in the race to win the prize? Who is running with you? How will you better run in such a way as to win the prize?