

A Week in Review

Let's strive to live out the gospel as we strive to mimic Christ and not mock the cross.

Group Opener

When have you asked yourself, "What in the world am I doing?"

Study Questions

In the crazy, challenging, or uncertain times of life what factors determine whether or not you flourish or stagnate?

Read Philippians 4:1-9.

Whenever we have a "therefore", like the one in verse one, we should ask ourselves, "What is the 'therefore', there for?" Take a minute to do that; ask yourself what the "therefore" is there for?

How are/have you been standing firm?

In what ways have you experienced an unshakable life because you are grounded in an immovable God?

Paul gives several reasons for his "appeal" to Euodia and Syntyche. What are they? (Vv. 2-3)

What motivates you to be at peace with other believers?

How well do you handle conflict in the church? What Bible passages inform your approach to reconciliation?

Where are you finding and being filled with joy in the Lord?

What antidote does Paul give for worry? (Vv. 6-7) How has prayer helped you through worry?

Reread Philippians 4:8. What's your thought-life like in comparison to this verse? How could it improve?

Share one way you will seek to grow and better stand firm in your faith?