

A Week in Review

Our desire is to have the same attitude as the apostle Paul who shares his heart when he says, “to live is Christ, to die is gain”.

Group Opener

How do you see the gospel advancing in, through and around you?

Study Questions

Read Philippians 1:12-19 and summarize it in your own words.

What stood out to you from this passage or from the message?

What do you learn about God from this passage?

What do you learn about man from this passage?

Who shared the gospel with you? Who have you had the privilege of sharing the gospel with?

Who or what inspires you to be bold in your faith? How might you inspire others to share their faith?

Paul was in “chains” and faced various trials which served to advance the gospel. What trials have you faced in your life and how have you seen God use them to advance the gospel?

How have you seen the gospel advanced during the past three months of quarantine?

When struggles come, do you tend to look upward or inward first and why?

During the message there was a challenge to filter things through the Bible in order to inform a biblical worldview. What are two or three ways a person could live this out?

At the end of the sermon there was a step by step explanation of the gospel. What do you need to do next in order to be more bold in sharing your faith and inspiring other believers to do the same?